

Worship Team Guidelines

By participating in the worship ministry, you are agreeing to the following spiritual and practical guidelines.*

Spiritual Guidelines:

1. To Know Christ as your Savior and have a consistent, growing relationship with God through: Personal time in the Word and Prayer, and Fellowship with other believers, for example Koinania Groups. (Heb.5:13)
2. As a Worship Team member, you are also a leader. Your life is a constant witness in your words and actions both on and off the platform. You are a representative of the Lord Jesus Christ and of the ministry of Cornerstone Chapel, and as such, your life must be a good reflection of both. You should regularly be asking yourself questions like “Is this glorifying to the Lord?” “Does this reflect well on my home church?” and “Could others stumble in their faith or reject Christ because of my witness?” Paul reminds us in Romans 14:19 “make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification.” He goes on to warn us about things that we might feel “free” to do which could potentially be harmful to others- “It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or to do anything else that will cause your brother to fall” (Rom. 14:21). And also "Everything is permissible for me"-but not everything is beneficial. "Everything is permissible for me"-but I will not be mastered by anything.” (1 Cor 6:12) We ask that you prayerfully consider all aspects of your life while serving in a visible leadership role.
3. Regular church attendee (Even if your not scheduled to play, sing, or run sound)
4. Supporter of the church - its leadership, and the church body (vocal support, physical support, financial support, etc.).

Practical Guidelines:

1. You must attend C.C. for at least 3 months, and have attended orientation before joining the worship ministry
2. You must go through a vocal or instrumental review
3. Be able to get along well with other team members
4. Be punctual to all events, i.e., rehearsals, meetings, services, etc.
5. Be prepared for all events, i.e., knowing music, words, etc.
6. Be willing to pursue more training if necessary
7. Attending rehearsals is required to participate in Worship on Sunday.
8. Be a team player – no “stars”
9. Be in agreement with other family members about your position with the worship team
10. Be enthusiastic and joyful when involved in worship. (especially when singing or playing from the platform!)
11. Dress appropriate for the occasion, (nothing that draws attention to self; dresses or skirts for ladies should be modest and hemlines close to the knees, or longer; no clothing that accentuates, i.e. tight sweaters, tight pants, low cut blouses, etc.).
12. May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. (Rom 15:13)
